

“Human Trafficking Compliance Means Certify, Prevent, Plan, and Report”

Although there may be differences in opinion over the efficacy of the groundbreaking recent Executive Order's anti-trafficking requirements, there can be little doubt that they will have an immediate and significant impact on the over 300,000 companies and organizations doing business (and who want to continue doing business) with the world's largest purchaser of goods and services, namely, the U.S. government.
