

Stepping It Up: A Guide for Mid-Level Law Firm Associates

This book provides guidance on how mid-level associates in large firms can successfully make the transition from junior associate—by "stepping up" their performance to meet the increasing expectations that partners have of associates with several years of experience. The book focuses on associates in their third to sixth years of practice—the time period in which law firms are most likely to lose the talent in whom they've invested so much.

To learn more about the book, please visit the Practising Law Institute.