

Four Perkins Coie Attorneys Recognized by Intellectual Asset Management as Global Leading IP Strategists

SEATTLE (July 2, 2019)?—Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that four of its attorneys were recognized by Intellectual Asset Management (IAM) in the IAM Strategy 300 list for 2019 which recognizes the world's leading professionals in patent prosecution, licensing and litigation. Partners Dana Hayter (San Francisco), Chun Ng (Seattle), Aaron Poledna (Seattle), who have all been recognized for several years, again made the list in 2019.

IAM Strategy 300: The World's Leading IP Strategists identifies global legal and business professionals who lead the way in the development and implementation of strategies that maximize the value of IP portfolios.

Perkins Coie is one of the most experienced firms in patent-based transactions and has been at the forefront of the patent marketplace for the past decade, facilitating hundreds of millions of dollars of patent purchases or sales for clients. We have a dedicated in-house patent analysis team that utilizes multiple third-party software services to help deliver outstanding portfolio analysis results, guided by our significant experience helping clients identify monetization opportunities.

Perkins Coie's IP practice combines the focus and flexibility of a boutique firm with the complementary services of one of the world's leading technology law firms. The internationally recognized practice consists of more than 250 lawyers and agents who provide innovative, comprehensive counsel at every stage of IP protection and development, including patent litigation and appeals, post-grant proceedings, patent prosecution, portfolio counseling and technology licensing, as well as copyright, trademark, trade secret and unfair competition counseling and litigation. More than 175 of the attorneys in the practice have degrees in electrical engineering, computer science and life sciences-related fields, and many attorneys previously worked as scientists, engineers or in-house counsel. Attorneys in the practice immerse themselves in clients' technologies and industries, and clients benefit from our interdisciplinary approach to matters. The firm's IP practice is an industry leader in developing innovative and technology-focused solutions to better serve clients, including the firm's proprietary patent tools and portfolio analytic capabilities.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.
