

Perkins Coie's Scott Palmer Named a Leading IP Lawyer for China

SEATTLE (September 18, 2019) – Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that Partner Scott Palmer has been named one of the leading IP lawyers for trademark and patent work in China by Managing Intellectual Property and World Intellectual Property Review.

Managing Intellectual Property's IP STARS and World Intellectual Property Review's WIPR Leaders recognize the leading IP practitioners in the world based on practice and industry expertise.

Palmer heads up the firm's China IP practice, with Counsel Yingli Wang, Ph.D. leading the China patent team. The team has deep experience supporting multinationals with the registration, prosecution, maintenance and enforcement of IP rights in China and assists clients across diverse industries, including the automotive, hospitality, pharmaceutical and telecommunications sectors.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.
