

Perkins Coie Announces 2021 Senior Counsel Promotions

SEATTLE (January 13, 2021)—Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that five attorneys have been promoted to senior counsel, effective January 1, 2021. Senior counsels have at least eight years of experience, are recognized for delivering high-quality legal work, are able to supervise junior lawyers and staff, and collaborate with partners on managing client engagements.

"Our new senior counsels are exceptional attorneys who have consistently delivered superior client service while demonstrating a commitment to Perkins Coie's core values and culture," said Firmwide Managing Partner Bill Malley. "I am honored to congratulate them on this well-deserved promotion and their new positions with the firm."

The Perkins Coie 2021 Senior Counsel Class includes:

- Dan Keese (Portland)
- Sarah Konz (Denver)
- Dave Pekarek Krohn (Madison)

Perkins Coie 2021 Senior Counsel Class

Dan Keese (Portland) is a member of the Patent Litigation practice. As a patent litigator and registered patent attorney, his practice involves patent litigation in district courts, the International Trade Commission, and before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, trade secret litigation, and patent counseling and analysis. He focuses his practice on matters involving semiconductors, electronics, and communications. He enjoys digging into the technology and the law to get results for clients.

Sarah Konz (Denver) is a member of Technology Transactions & Privacy Law practice. Sarah focuses her practice on the transactional issues related to intellectual property. This includes negotiating and drafting agreements in the areas of complex procurement arrangements, patent licensing, technology development and transfer, product manufacturing, distribution and sales, maintenance and support agreements, content creation and distribution, marketing and advertising services, and other intellectual property licenses.

Dave Pekarek Krohn (Madison) is a member of the Patent Litigation practice. He has represented clients in patent infringement suits involving patents in a range of technologies, focusing on electrical engineering and computer science. Dave has also litigated patents related to cloud computing, streaming media, e-mail technology, video game systems, light-emitting diodes, and logic circuits, and has also represented pharmaceutical companies in Hatch-Waxman litigation.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.
