

Three Perkins Coie Attorneys Selected by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity for 2021 Fellows and Pathfinder Programs

SEATTLE (March 23, 2021)—Perkins Coie is proud to announce that three firm attorneys, Alisha Burgin, and Sopen Shah have been selected by the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) as part of the council's 2021 Fellows and Pathfinder programs.

Alisha is a Los Angeles-based partner in Perkins Coie's Business Litigation practice, Anna is a Washington, D.C.-based associate in the Investment Management practice, and Sopen is a Madison-based associate in the Appeals, Issues, & Strategy practice. Alisha has been selected under the LCLD's Fellows program, and Anna and Sopen have been selected under the Pathfinder program.

"We are thrilled that the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity has selected Alisha, Anna, and Sopen and congratulate each of these outstanding attorneys for their induction into the Fellows and Pathfinder programs," said Perkins Coie's Chief Diversity & Inclusion Officer Genhi Givings Bailey. "Diversity and inclusion are core to Perkins Coie's culture and the legal counsel and perspective we provide to our global clients."

The LCLD programs train high-performing attorneys in critical career development strategies, including leadership and the building of professional networks. Founded in 2009, LCLD is a growing organization of more than 320 corporate chief legal officers and law firm managing partners who are personally committed to creating a truly diverse legal profession.
