

Perkins Coie's IP Practice and Pro Bono Work Recognized in 2021 China Business Law Journal Awards

SEATTLE (June 11, 2021) - Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that it has won recognition for its trademark, copyright and patent practices in the 2021 China Business Law Journal awards for the third straight year. The firm was also recognized this year in the pro bono category for the first time.

The firm's Intellectual Property practice group combines the focus and flexibility of a boutique firm with the complementary services of one of the world's leading technology law firms. Our internationally recognized IP practice consists of more than 250 attorneys and agents in the United States and Asia who provide innovative, comprehensive counsel at every stage of IP protection and development. Perkins Coie's China Intellectual Property practice group has deep experience supporting multinationals with the registration, prosecution, maintenance, and enforcement of IP rights in China. To support clients in China, Perkins Coie recently established an Intellectual Property Agency in Beijing and Shenzhen.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.

Media Inquiries: Please email Justin Cole, Head of Media Relations.

Explore more in

Intellectual Property Law

Media inquiries