

Perkins Coie Represents Algorithmia in Acquisition by DataRobot

SEATTLE (July 27, 2021)—Perkins Coie is pleased to have represented Algorithmia in its acquisition by DataRobot. The Algorithmia machine learning operations (MLOps) platform aims to bring models into production and deliver business value with enterprise-grade security and governance, continuous integration, and accelerated deployment. The platform is designed for the needs of IT operations specialists, enabling enterprises to address complex, high-volume model production effectively and securely.

DataRobot's acquisition of Algorithmia further cements DataRobot's place as the preeminent provider of comprehensive solutions in the MLOps space. For more information, please see DataRobot's press release.

Perkins Coie has served as outside counsel to Algorithmia since 2014, led by corporate partner David McShea. The Perkins Coie deal team was led by Seattle partners Lee Schindler and Nick Davis and included counsel Arian Galavis. Advice was also provided by employee benefits partner Tom Cristy and associate Tomer Vandsburger; executive compensation partner Lisa McGimpsey; technology transactions partner Sam Hong; tax partner Bryan Smith and associate Eric Ashcroft.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.
