

Perkins Coie Represents Microsoft in Acquisition of Suplari

SEATTLE (August 2, 2021)—Perkins Coie is pleased to have represented Microsoft Corporation in its acquisition of Suplari, a leading provider of supplier spend insights. For more information, please see the Microsoft Dynamics 365 Blog here.

Suplari currently helps mid-size and large enterprises continuously manage costs and cash flow using unified, cleansed data, automated insights, and predictive actions. By bringing Suplari's spend intelligence insights together with the existing Microsoft Dynamics 365 capabilities, Microsoft is further helping organizations become insight-driven and enabling business leaders to take strategic action.

The Perkins Coie deal team was led by Seattle partner Nick Davis and counsel Michelle Han and included associates Katie Rosati and Katherine Joseph. Advice was also provided by employee benefits partner Tom Cristy and associate Tomer Vandsburger; employment partner Julie Lucht and counsel Stephanie Holstein; executive compensation senior counsel Iveth Durbin; privacy counsel Arsen Kourinian and associates Brendan Sasso; technology transactions partner Justin Moon, counsel Ali Mirsaidi and associates Elle Davis, Perry Li and Jason LeBlanc; and tax partner Carl Crow and associate Alice Townes.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.
