

SEATTLE (January 20, 2022)—Perkins Coie is pleased to have represented Endeavour, a private equity firm that is a source of capital to private businesses and management teams, in its partnership with Point B, an employee-owned global consulting firm. For more information, please see the Point B press release here.

The Endeavour partnership builds upon Point B's significant growth in recent years and accelerates their mission to make an impact on customers' most pressing business challenges. Endeavour has a history of driving growth for employee-owned companies and will enable Point B to expand its industry-relevant solutions, continue to build out a diverse team of experts, and pursue targeted acquisitions to help customers unlock value through technology.

The Perkins Coie deal team was led by mergers & acquisitions partner Nick Ferrer, counsel Michelle Han, and associates Sean Wagnon and Alex Pascualy. Further legal counsel was also provided by corporate partner James Gradel, counsel Nick Kajca, and associate Laura Gritz; antitrust partner Chris Williams and staff attorney Betsy Kristoferson; tax partners Bryan Smith and Bob Mahon, and counsel Eric Ashcroft; employee benefits partners Tom Cristy and Lisa McGimpsey, and associate Tomer Vandsburger; technology transactions partner Sam Hong and associate Kelsey McIntosh; real estate partner Nathan Fahrer; employment partner James Sanders, environment and natural resources partner Sloane Wildman, and insurance partner Mike Sharkey.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.
