

Perkins Coie's ECVC Practice Advises Technology Platform Higg in $50M Series B Funding Round

SAN FRANCISCO (May 2, 2022)—Perkins Coie is pleased to have advised Higg, a sustainability insights platform for the consumer goods industry, in its $50M Series B funding round. For more information, please see Higg's press release here.

Data on the Higg platform is used to design more sustainable products, to expand worker well-being, and to identify suppliers with reduced impact across emissions, water, chemicals, and waste. The funding round was co-led by technology growth investor Silversmith Capital Partners and Tom Steyer and Katie Hall's Galvanize Climate Solutions, along with participation by Series A partners Titan Grove and Buckhill Capital. The funding will accelerate Higg's delivery of innovative technology solutions and its rapid expansion into new consumer goods categories such as outdoor, automotive, toys, and home goods.

The Perkins Coie advisory team was led by corporate counsel Arian Galavis and emerging companies and venture capital partner Lee Schindler and included associates Trey Chenier and Scott Griffin, as well as technology transactions partner Sam Jo, and tax partner Bryan Smith and counsel Daniel Sito.
