

Perkins Coie Recognized by the Denver Business Journal as a 2022 Best Place to Work

DENVER (May 11, 2022)—Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that it ranked prominently in fifth place on the Denver Business Journal's 2022 "Best Places to Work" list as an extra-large company, the only law firm of comparable size honored within this category. Perkins Coie's Denver office is home to more than 60 attorneys who provide a full spectrum of legal services, including litigation, business transactions, and intellectual property.

"Our high ranking as a leading Denver workplace and employer is a strong testament to the culture of respect, collaboration, and inclusion that our attorneys and business professionals continue to foster," said David St. John-Larkin, Perkins Coie's Denver office managing partner. "We are excited to be recognized for this award and look forward to continuing to provide our clients in Denver and beyond with effective and strategic legal counsel."

Quantum Workplace conducted an employee engagement survey for the Denver Business Journal in the local metro area that required 75% of employees at each workplace to provide feedback. The survey measured 10 key engagement categories, including team effectiveness, trust in senior leaders, feeling valued, manager effectiveness, and compensation and benefits.

Perkins Coie has long been recognized for excellence in the legal industry and for its commitment to fostering a diverse and inclusive work culture. The firm was ranked as the #1 U.S. employer among the 2021 "Best Workplaces in Consulting & Professional Services" by Great Place to Work®, has been recognized as one of Fortune's "100 Best Companies to Work For®" for 20 consecutive years, and has also been recognized as an Inclusion Blueprint Champion by Diversity Lab. Perkins Coie has also earned the Human Rights Campaign Foundation's top rating of 100% in the Corporate Equality Index, a national benchmarking survey on corporate policies and practices related to LGBTQ workplace equality, for 14 straight years.
