

Perkins Coie Adds Veteran IP Partner Masahiro Noda in San Diego

Noda joins firm as chair of TCIA'S Japan Trademark & Copyright practice group, bolstering U.S.-Asian client capabilities.

SAN DIEGO and NEW YORK (June 14, 2022)—Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that Masahiro (Masa) Noda has joined the firm's Intellectual Property practice as a partner in the Trademark, Copyright, Internet & Advertising (TCIA) practice group. Masa, who is barred in both California and New York, will reside in the firm's San Diego office and affiliate with the New York office.

A veteran IP lawyer who will further bolster the group's U.S.-Asian client capabilities, Masa has been appointed to serve as chair of TCIA's newly created Japan Trademark & Copyright practice.

"We continue to strengthen our IP practice coast-to-coast as well as internationally," said Shannon Bloodworth, firmwide chair of Perkins Coie's Intellectual Property practice. "With his deep trademark and copyright legal skill set, as well as his experience counseling many of the world's most sophisticated technology companies and biggest brands, Masa's practice aligns perfectly with our strategic goals. We're excited to welcome him to our team."

Masa manages both U.S. and international trademark portfolios and provides strategic counsel to clients on global IP development, protection, licensing, advertising, and marketing strategies. Additionally, he has extensive experience in IP enforcement and has represented clients in federal and state courts involving claims of trademark and trade dress infringement, copyright infringement, false advertising, unfair competition, and trademark counterfeiting, and in trademark opposition and cancellation proceedings before the Trademark Trial and Appeal Board (TTAB) of the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO).

A native Japanese speaker, Masa's clients include various companies based in Asia. In particular, he has served as U.S. and global IP strategy counsel for corporations in Japan in the consumer retail, pharmaceutical, food, fashion, entertainment, and media industries.

"Masa's addition to our team bolsters our geographic expansion and capabilities, furthers our ability to serve clients around the globe, and expands our opportunities to develop and build upon our relationships in Japan," said Thomas Holt, firmwide chair of the Trademark, Copyright, Internet & Advertising practice.

"Masa is a highly regarded global IP practitioner who will be a strong addition to our San Diego office," said Mark Wicker, Perkins Coie's San Diego office managing partner.

Masa received his J.D. from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, Yeshiva University, and his B.A. from the University of Michigan.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.

Media Inquiries: Please email Justin Cole, Head of Media Relations.

Contact

Masahiro Noda

Partner

MNoda@perkinscoie.com 858.720.5797

Explore more in

Intellectual Property Law

Media inquiries