

Perkins Coie Recognized by the Phoenix Business Journal as a 2022 Best Place to Work

PHOENIX (December 20, 2022)—Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that it has been recognized on the Phoenix Business Journal's 2022 Best Places to Work list. The list is determined by an anonymous employee survey conducted by Quantum Workplace. Companies of similar size are evaluated and ranked in multiple categories based on the number of employees. The firm's Phoenix office ranked 11th in the midsize company category.

"We are honored to be recognized as a leading employer by the Phoenix Business Journal," said Todd Kerr, office managing partner of Perkins Coie's Phoenix office. "We work very hard to create and maintain an inclusive and collaborative work environment as we continue to expand our presence in Phoenix and serve clients on local, national, and international levels."

The 65 lawyers in the Phoenix office represent clients on a wide range of commercial and intellectual property litigation matters, as well as environmental and natural resources, energy, water law, securities, employment, insurance recovery, bankruptcy, and white-collar criminal defense matters. The Phoenix office also advises clients in business matters, including mergers and acquisitions, real estate, land use, fintech and digital assets, and general corporate governance and transactions.

Perkins Coie has long been recognized for its commitment to fostering a diverse and inclusive work culture. The firm has been ranked as the #8 U.S. employer among the "Best Workplaces in Consulting & Professional Services 2022™" by Great Place to Work®, recognized as one of Fortune's "100 Best Companies to Work For®" for 20 consecutive years, and named an Inclusion Blueprint Champion by Diversity Lab. The firm has also earned the Human Rights Campaign Foundation's top rating of 100% in the Corporate Equality Index, a national benchmarking survey on corporate policies and practices related to LGBTQ+ workplace equality, for 14 straight years.

Perkins Coie is a leading global law firm, dedicated to helping the world's most innovative companies solve the legal and business challenges of tomorrow. Learn about our work and values here.
