

Perkins Coie Named a Cybersecurity and IP Litigation Leader by Leading General Counsel in BTI Litigation Outlook 2023

SEATTLE (October 14, 2022)—Perkins Coie was named a "Litigation Leader" in cybersecurity and intellectual property litigation in the BTI Litigation Outlook 2023 report, an annual analysis by BTI Consulting Group of the legal landscape. Perkins Coie is in the top 3 percent of all firms for cybersecurity litigation and in the top 5 percent of all firms for IP litigation. This is the second year in a row the firm was recognized as a leader in both categories.

The BTI Litigation Outlook 2023 is based solely on in-depth interviews with leading legal decision makers at organizations with $1 billion or more in revenue. The analysis trends data from more than 20,000 corporate counsel client interviews conducted over the span of 21 years. The 2023 report predicts that the caseload is growing faster than spending and the demand for litigation planning and strategy along with litigation is at record levels.

Perkins Coie's internationally recognized Intellectual Property practice consists of more than 250 lawyers and agents in the United States and Asia who provide innovative, comprehensive counsel at every stage of IP protection and development. Our lawyers have secured significant wins for many clients, particularly in the pharmaceutical and technology sectors, before the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, the U.S. International Trade Commission, district courts, and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Perkins Coie's Privacy & Security practice represents clients across a wide range of industries and stages of growth, from startups to Fortune 500 companies in technology, retail, digital publishing, advertising, manufacturing, financial services, healthcare, and education, among other sectors. The firm's Privacy & Security team helps clients understand information practices and navigate the full life cycle of data protection issues—from building privacy and security programs from the ground up to ongoing privacy counseling, complex commercial transactions, high-stakes privacy litigation, and regulatory enforcement.

Perkins Coie is a leading international law firm that is known for providing high-value, strategic solutions and extraordinary client service on matters vital to our clients' success. With more than 1,200 lawyers in offices across the United States and Asia, we provide a full array of corporate, commercial litigation, intellectual property, and regulatory legal advice to a broad range of clients, including many of the world's most innovative companies and industry leaders as well as public and not-for-profit organizations.
