

Perkins Coie Welcomes Jacquie Duval in New York to Broaden Private Funds and Family Office Offering

NEW YORK (June 18, 2024)—Perkins Coie is pleased to announce that veteran private funds and family office partner Jacquie Duval has joined the Corporate and Financial Regulation practices in New York as the chair of Private Capital and Fund Formation where she will help expand the firm's capabilities serving private funds and family offices.

Jacquie brings over a decade of experience advising private equity firms, innovative family offices, emerging managers, venture funds, and private foundations with respect to strategic planning, financial transactions, investment execution, domestic and international taxation and entity structuring.

"We're thrilled to welcome a lawyer of Jacquie's caliber to the firm and know our clients will benefit from her counsel and experience gleaned from senior roles with leading investment banks and respected investment groups," said Molly Moynihan, the firmwide chair of Perkins Coie's Investment Management practice. "We're deepening our capabilities to serve private funds and investors in New York and beyond and Jacquie further positions us to provide sophisticated advice to benefit our clients in their investment activities."

As part of her funds practice, Jacquie guides both established and emerging fund sponsors on fund formation, operational, transactional, tax, and regulatory matters, including seeding and general partner staking arrangements, as well as secondary transactions and co-investment structures. She also frequently works with clients navigating investments in technology and biopharma companies. Jacquie is further committed to helping women-led family offices and entrepreneurs structure, grow, and invest.

"Perkins Coie is well-known for advising leading entrepreneurs, innovators, and dynamic family offices and for providing top-tier legal counsel to its clients," said Jacquie Duval. "The firm continues to make significant investments in New York and globally – including in London and across Europe - and I'm excited by the opportunity to bring my private funds, family office and international background to bear for clients."

Jacquie joins Perkins Coie from K&L Gates where she was a partner and a member of the Asset Management and Investment Funds and the Tax practices. Her prior experience also includes roles with private family offices, Goldman Sachs, and Morgan Stanley in New York and London.

Jacquie received her J.D., magna cum laude, from Cornell Law School and her B.A., summa cum laude, from Syracuse University.
