

Laura Morton Quoted in Multiple Publications Regarding Joining Perkins Coie

Laura Morton was quoted in multiple publications regarding joining the firm's Environment, Energy & Resources practice in the Washington, D.C., office.

"I continue to believe that we're at a very important pivot point — the challenge of climate change," she said. "I'm excited to join Perkins. I'm thrilled with the transition and to work with friends and former colleagues here to build a practice to tackle the issue of climate change. I think this is the moment." (*Law360)
