

Brandon White Mentioned in Techbondhu—Bayer, Meda Sue Apotex Over Proposed Astepro Allergy Generic

Brandon White was mentioned in Techbondhu's article, "Bayer, Meda Sue Apotex Over Proposed Astepro Allergy Generic," regarding his representation of Meda Pharmaceuticals in a case against Canadian generic drugmaker Apotex.

Meda acquired FDA approval for the prescription model of Astepro in 2009. Bayer spokesperson Chris Loder stated in a press release that the corporate licenses the patents from Meda and has the best to implement them in opposition to alleged infringers.

Apotex did not instantly reply to a request for remark. Viatris additionally did not instantly reply, nor did Bayer's attorneys Dov Grossman of Williams & Connolly and Jack Blumenfeld of Morris Nichols Arsht & Tunnell, or Meda's attorneys Brandon White of Perkins Coie and Jennifer Ward of Wilson Sonsini Goodrich & Rosati.

Contact

Brandon M. White

Partner

BMWhite@perkinscoie.com 202.654.6206

Explore more in

Litigation