

Tammy Baldwin Quoted in Reuters—Today's Snazzy Law Offices: Wow-Factor or Wasteful?

Tammy Baldwin was quoted in "Today's Snazzy Law Offices: Wow-Factor or Wasteful?" an article in Reuters, regarding the firm's new Palo Alto office.

When the firm moves to a consolidated office in Palo Alto in March, chief of business operations Tammy Baldwin told me that lawyers who come in infrequently will also not have their own dedicated (mostly unused) offices, but will be able to reserve offices and collaboration spaces for use during their visits. Others on a set hybrid schedule may share an office, with one lawyer occupying it, for example, on Mondays and Wednesdays and the other on Tuesdays and Thursdays. However, lawyers who work in-person four or five days a week will get their own offices.
