

Keith Miller Quoted in CoinDesk—This Tiny Blockchain Startup’s Tangle with SEC Could End Up as Landmark Case

Keith Miller was quoted in "This Tiny Blockchain Startup's Tangle With SEC Could End Up as Landmark Case," an article in CoinDesk, regarding whether LBRY's tokens are deemed securities could set an even bigger precedent than Ripple's higher-profile U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) suit.

Keith Miller of Perkins Coie, LBRY's defense attorney, said, "LBRY intends to vigorously defend this action. They stand by their answer to the SEC's complaint and do not believe that LBCs are securities."
