

Partner Ted Boling Quoted in Greenwire—Biden Restores Climate to NEPA, Undoing Trump’s Efforts

Partner Ted Boling was quoted in the Greenwire article "Biden Restores Climate to NEPA, Undoing Trump's Efforts" regarding the White House today completed reforms on how agencies implement the National Environmental Policy Act, effectively undoing one of the Trump administration's most controversial environmental regulatory rollbacks.

The Trump White House reversed decades of precedent by downplaying cumulative impacts, said Ted, a partner at Perkins Coie and a former CEQ career staffer who helped lead the last administration's rewrite.
