

Perkins Coie Lawyers Mentioned in Multiple Publications Regarding New IP Group

Partners Stefani Shanberg, Nathan Sabri, Veronica Ascarrunz, and Robin Brewer were mentioned in multiple publications regarding joining the firm.

"Clients rely on us to help solve their most complex IP challenges" and this "accomplished and diverse team will enhance our already strong leadership position in patent litigation," Shannon Bloodworth, firmwide IP chair of Perkins Coie, said in a statement.

The team addition also "continues the robust growth and diversity of our San Francisco office, where the majority of our partners are now women," Laura Zagar, the managing partner of Perkins Coie's San Francisco office, said in a statement. (Law.com)
