

Perkins Coie sponsored "Clients & The Courts, A Conversation" on March 24, presented by the Federal Bar Association in association with Stanford Law School. The program featured eight federal judges in conversation with company litigation heads from a diverse cross-section of our corporate community, including leading lights.

Explore more in

Intellectual Property Law Patent Litigation