

On this episode of The Tech Law Hangout, host Jordan Becker welcomes Perkins Coie Beijing Office Managing Partner Scott Palmer to share more about changes in intellectual property enforcement in China and his experience working in intellectual property practice in China. Scott and Jordan dig into China's IP enforcement and litigation systems, including the significant improvements in the legal system over the past three decades and the sophisticated laws and enforcement mechanisms.

"From the trajectory I've seen in terms of black letter law and the improvement of the enforcement mechanisms and litigation in China, the future looks optimistic." – Scott Palmer
