

Leaders of the U.S. House of Representatives have requested that the FTC take action against price gouging related to the coronavirus (COVID-19) and have indicated that they would assist with appropriate legislation.

Almost every state has issued emergency declarations which, in many states, trigger prohibitions against price gouging.

As the coronavirus pandemic evolves, retailers should be aware of these laws and monitor FTC and legislative action relating to price gouging. Read the full article.

Authors

Susan E. Foster

Partner

SFoster@perkinscoie.com 206.359.8846

Jon B. Jacobs

Partner

JBJacobs@perkinscoie.com 202.654.1758

Explore more in

Consumer Protection

Blog series

Consumer Protection Review

Consumer Protection Review helps businesses that market and sell to consumers navigate federal and state legal issues related to advertising, privacy, promotions, products liability, government investigations, unfair competition, class actions and general consumer protection. Subscribe ?

View the blog