

On January 8, 2021, California's Office of Environmental Health Hazard Assessment (OEHHA) announced proposed regulations that would significantly affect how businesses selling to California consumers may use short-form Proposition 65 warnings on their products.

These proposed regulations, if finalized, may create new compliance obligations and will likely decrease the use of the short-form Proposition 65 labeling in the marketplace. Click here to read the full Perkins Coie Update.

Authors

Jasmine Wetherell

Partner

JWetherell@perkinscoie.com 310.788.3294

Kristine E. Kruger

Senior Counsel

KKruger@perkinscoie.com 206.359.3111

Thomas (Tommy) Tobin

Counsel

TTobin@perkinscoie.com 206.359.3157

Explore more in

Consumer Protection

Blog series

Consumer Protection Review

Consumer Protection Review helps businesses that market and sell to consumers navigate federal and state legal issues related to advertising, privacy, promotions, products liability, government investigations, unfair competition, class actions and general consumer protection.

View the blog