Blogs

October 27, 2022

In this article featured in Bloomberg Law, Perkins Coie attorneys explain how China's new data security laws and use of third-party apps by Chinese employees create significant obstacles for companies conducting internal investigations in the country.

Click here to read the full story.

Authors

Explore more in

White Collar & Investigations