

Certain employers may feel the impact of recent modifications to the I-9 process, while all employers will be affected by the introduction of a new I-9 form. Eligible employers have the option to use an alternative verification method to virtually authenticate I-9 documents for their employees who were previously onboarded remotely due to COVID-19 accommodations. In addition, a new edition of Form I-9 has been released, incorporating the alternative verification process and other revisions. In this episode, KoKo discusses important changes that employers should be aware of regarding I-9 compliance.
