The CCPA Is Here: What's Changed and What You Need to Know for Compliance

Panelist: Natasha Amlani

RSA® Conference 2020 / San Francisco, CA

Abstract: While California's Consumer Privacy Act became law on Jan. 1 2020, many key amendments only just passed—meaning security and privacy pros may still be scrambling to build CCPA-compliant programs. This session brings together the top CCPA experts to detail the latest on the law, including key amendments, share case studies and research on CCPA preparedness and give a roadmap for compliance.
