

Events

February 27, 2025

An Overview of Social Media Law and Best Practices: What Every Company Needs to Know

John Delaney will be speaking at the Social Media and Mobile Devices 2025: Addressing Corporate Risks, on the topic of social media law.

This session will summarize the basics of social media law and discuss best practices for companies engaging with social media. After completing this session, participants will appreciate:

- The transformational impact of social media on the business world
- Key developments shaping social media law and best practices
- Risks related to marketing, curation and other commercial uses of user-generated content
- The importance of the DMCA Section 512 and CDA Section 230 safe harbors, including recent developments affecting the scope and availability of these important protections

Learn More and Register

Authors