Voluntary Dismissal in Bumble Bee Class Action

Ogden v. Bumble Bee, No. 12cv1828 (N.D. Cal.): Plaintiff voluntarily dismissed a putative class action complaint alleging claims under California's consumer protection statutes, the FDCA, the Sherman Act, the Song-Beverly Consumer Warranty Act, and Magnuson-Moss Warranty Act. Previously, the court had granted partial summary judgment, dismissing the warranty claims along with plaintiff's claims for restitution and disgorgement, significantly reducing the remedies available. The court accepted the dismissal and entered judgment in favor of defendant. Order.
